one week this summer 20 girls will make an impact

July 27 - August 2, 2014
University of Denver Campus

Apply today for our 2014 Girls' Leadership Council<sup>SM</sup>

What is Girls' Leadership Council?

The Girls' Leadership Council<sup>SM</sup> (GLC) is a prestigious program created by The Women's Foundation of Colorado (WFCO) that inspires girls to be future leaders and philanthropists. Through GLC, girls will engage in a challenging, hands-on program that allows each girl to discover the power to assist their communities.

Through a competitive application and review process, 20 high school sophomore girls will be invited to participate in a one-week intensive, on-site summer program July 27 – August 2, 2014 on the University of Denver campus. The 2014 GLC team will:

- Investigate, discuss and address issues impacting Colorado's women and girls based on the most current research
- Research, conduct site visits and as a collective group grant $20,000 to Colorado nonprofit organizations working to reduce the high school drop-out rate and promote STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) careers among girls
- Discover the importance and impact of philanthropy by and for women and girls
- Live among a community of like-minded peers for one week on the DU campus

Two exemplary participants will also be selected to each receive a $1,500 Dottie Lamm Leadership Award to support their future educational expenses.
