

Last year in Colorado, more than 7,000 teenage girls dropped out of school. Help change this statistic by becoming a mentor for a young girl -- you'll be amazed how much you can do just by listening.

MENTORING:

- M Improves girls' perspectives toward education and motivates them to do better in school.
  - M Provides girls with a positive support system and encourages them to become self-sufficient, motivated adults.
  - M Increases girls' self esteem.

Become a mentor today and give a girl a supportive, non-judgmental, adult female role model who supports her 100 percent.
