

20th Anniversary The Women's Foundation of Colorado Fact Sheet 2007

20 Years: Our Numbers are Growing

- The WFCO is a statewide community foundation committed to improving the lives of women and girls through policy work, philanthropy, and partnerships with other like-minded organizations.
- The WFCO was founded in 1987 and to date has invested more than $9 million and worked with more than 180 agencies in 75 Colorado communities to remove barriers and increase opportunities for women and girls.

20 Years: About Us

- The WFCO is one of the largest and oldest women's funds in the nation, and the only foundation in Colorado working exclusively for women and girls.
- The WFCO's mission is to build resources and lead change so that the women and girls of Colorado are full and equal participants in society.
- The WFCO's goal is that every woman in Colorado is economically self-sufficient, and every girl in Colorado is on the path to economic self-sufficiency in adulthood.

20 Years: Our Future Relies on Donors

- The WFCO's largest fund-raiser, the Denver Gender Matters luncheon, brings more than 2,000 donors, friends, community leaders and corporate sponsors together. The 2007 luncheon will be November 14, and the key note speaker will be Cokie Roberts. For more information, call 303-285-2960.
- The WFCO accepts donations online at www.wfco.org; or you can mail a check to our offices, located on the University of Denver campus in The Chambers Center: 1901 East Asbury Avenue, Denver, CO 80208; or contact us directly at 303.285.2960. Our fax is: 303.285.2978.
