*The Women's Foundation of Colorado Hosts "Bold Voices" Concert
November 6, 2015 in Boulder*

Boulder, Colo. (Sept.15, 2015) – The Boulder Regional Committee of The Women's Foundation of Colorado (WFCO) announced today a benefit concert to help Colorado women and girls reach their full potential, featuring Boulder "Queen of Groove" Liz Barnez, acclaimed national touring artist Rebecca Folsom, and Colorado legend Hazel Miller.

Taking place at eTown Hall in Boulder on Nov. 6, 2015, the "Bold Voices" musicians will use the art of rhythm, funk, and storytelling to support WFCO's statewide efforts to make a difference in the lives of women and girls in Colorado.

"We are thrilled to have these local legends join The Women's Foundation of Colorado for an evening to raise funds to support the economic self-sufficiency of all Colorado women and girls," said MaryAnn Franklin, trustee and chair of the Boulder Regional Committee for The Women's Foundation of Colorado. "The concert will support the work of WFCO statewide and in Boulder County, where one in ten women lives at or below poverty level."

The Women's Foundation of Colorado uses research, education, public policy, and community partnerships to make an impact in three key areas:

- Helping all girls graduate from high school
- Helping low-income single mothers through job training and education
- Helping women and girls enter and succeed in STEM fields, where earnings and entrepreneurial opportunities are higher

VIP and general admission tickets, tables and sponsorship opportunities are available at www.wfco.org/boulderconcert. VIP tickets are $150 and general admission tickets are $40.
