that set moms up for success as they pursue education and job training to advance their earning potential (Single Moms Succeed); and Girls and young women build their interests, skills, and confidence in Public Policy Support - WFCO advocates for public policies that improve opportunities for Colorado women and families to achieve economic security by addressing root causes of poverty and advancing education and job training, access to work supports, such as child care, and pay equity. In pursuit of these public policy priorities, WFCO awards grants to public policy organizations with aligned goals of supporting progress for women and girls on the path to and beyond economic self-sufficiency.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c, Program Service Accomplishments:

Community Engagement - To inspire and motivate individuals to join the movement to strengthen the community by improving economic opportunities and outcomes for Colorado women and girls, WFCO gathers and shares information in several ways. WFCO invests in research to inform our programmatic and policy work. Issues, opportunities, and potential solutions identified through research are shared with partners, policy makers, and community members through direct outreach, various media, and educational events across the state. In 2016, research topics included advancing gender equity in STEM industries, the impacts of increasing the minimum wage, and strengthening leaders in Colorado's early education and child care sector. WFCO's work was highlighted in 26 news articles statewide and we connected with thousands of community members in events such as Annual Luncheons in Denver, Colorado Springs, and Vail, the Pueblo Soiree, STEM Coalition meetings, and webinars to share key findings on impacts of a minimum wage increase for women and families in Colorado.
